

Luxury, style and comfort for the discerning traveller

The President Solitaire Hotel

The President Solitaire Hotel is ideally located on Sukhumvit Road's thriving Soi 11 and is just a stone's throw from the Nana Skytrain station and a heartbeat from the midst of Bangkok's thriving business and entertainment centre. Right outside the hotel's front door you are in the midst of one of the most important roads in Thailand.

The country and people are justly world famous for their unsurpassed and superlative hospitality and that is what awaits every guest at the President Solitaire. As soon as you walk into the spaciouly imposing foyer you know that you will be spending your time in the lap of luxury. The reception area is large, light and airy and dominated by a classically romantic sweeping staircase reminiscent of the colonial-style 19th century mansions of the southern U.S states. It is truly befitting a cotton-baron's mansion.

The staff are unfailingly warm, friendly and personable making the check-in experience an effortless pleasure and before you turn around your bags will be whisked off and you will be escorted to your room. And what rooms they are, almost like being at home, in fact these rooms and suites have been described as a home away from home.

All of the 134 suites are decorated in an understated manner using natural materials with a colour palate aimed to sooth and calm; stone and earth colours are guaranteed to induce a comfortably homely experience. You can choose between a range of accommodation from the Executive Suite an ample 43sqm space through the PREMIER SUITE the Platinum and the large 80sqm Solitaire Suite.

As you would expect from a hotel of the President Solitaire's high standard, every room and suite is elegantly appointed and furnished and has state-of-the-art entertainment systems that include a 42" Plasma TV with more than 30 channels including the BBC, CNN, ESPN, HBO and NHK. Each TV has its own DVD player. In addition there is complimentary WiFi Internet connection. A daily maid and bed linen changing service is also provided.

Some of the larger suites have an in-room washing machine and clothes dryer, but the guests in all rooms and suites can take advantage of the hotel's laundry service. It goes without saying that all accommodation has a fully and extensively stocked minibar.

The bathrooms are something to relish and in which to luxuriate and pamper yourself, the walls and the bath itself are of cool light grey marble. The environment begs you to draw a deep bath and wallow at your pleasure with a glass of wine and a good book; who cares about the passing of time when this level of bathing luxury is there to be relished.

But a soothing soak is not the only way to relax at the President Solitaire. You know what it's like after a long and hard day in the boardroom or just sightseeing your muscles are tense, you ache all over and your body yearns for release.

This is the time to visit the President's Ananda Spa where a whole range of treatments are available from Swedish massage to aromatherapy massages using essential oils to ease the maladies of the day. No need to go alone either the Ananda Spa treatment rooms can accommodate your partner or a special friend.

They also have a sauna and steam room so you can sweat out the dust and grit of the capital's streets and leave feeling glowingly refreshed and decidedly detoxed. While you are in the Spa take time to consult their beauty and body-care specialists who can offer advice on the re-building of a new you, or at least the start of a healthier lifestyle. Then hit the fitness centre for a good workout.

If you are already exhausted at reading this then there is nothing better than a facial massage and skin detox. Just lay back, close your eyes and let the therapist's hands do their soothing work. Perfect bliss in perfect surroundings.

Now after that you will need to satisfy the inner man, that can be done at the President Solitaire's Dining Room where the world renowned Thai cuisine is a speciality. There is also an extensive international menu with dishes and flavours from around the world. Before the meal take time out at the lobby lounge it is just a perfect place to enjoy a relaxing pre-dinner drink.

Or stop off for an aperitif before taking a short walk along Sukhumvit Road for a pre-dinner libation before a leisurely dinner at one of the Soi 11's or Sukhumvit's many fine Thai and international restaurants.

And if when you return from carousing the night away at the local hostels and clubs and feel a little peckish then the President Solitaire has even thought of this as there is a chef on duty 24 hours a day to tend to your culinary needs at any hour.

All good things come to an end and when your business or holiday in Bangkok is regrettably over the hotel is very conveniently located for the expressway to Suvarnabhumi airport, just a quick 40-minute dash and you will be delivered to the airport's front doors.

At the end of your stay at Bangkok's President Solitaire Hotel you will surely be making reservations for your next visit and I can guarantee that you will want to return very soon.
